EPC - The New Way to Get Your Arizona Unemployment Insurance Benefits!

Beginning March 1, 2005 the Employment Administration introduced the Arizona Electronic Payment Card (EPC) Program, also known as the JP Morgan/Chase Bank Visa Debit card. EPC is the innovative approach to receiving your UI benefits electronically and will eliminate mailing delays or the possibility of a lost or stolen check. There are no credit checks to obtain the JP Morgan/Chase Bank Visa Debit card. The new Arizona Electronic Payment Card (EPC) is safer and more convenient than paper checks. With the EPC, you can access your cash 24 hours a day, 7 days a week through Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) and retail Point-of-Sale retailers throughout Arizona and across the country—plus, there are no fees if you use your card at Point-of-Sale retailers, BankOne or Allpoint ATMs.

If you elect to enroll in the Arizona Electronic Payment Card (EPC) program, JP Morgan/Chase Bank will establish an account for you. When your enrollment form is processed JP Morgan/Chase Bank will mail to you a welcome package to include the Visa Debit Card, Welcome Letter, Terms and Conditions, User Guide, Cardholder Agreement and Fee Schedule. You must contact JP Morgan to activate your card.

To enroll in the EPC program you must read and accept the terms of the EPC Agreement; then sign, date and mail this form to:
